

Go as far as you can,
then, take another step.

Lord, when I think that I can't go on and take another step, lift me up and tell me that I can. Give me the tired satisfaction and joy that comes from knowing I went beyond what I thought I could and I am one step closer to the prize.

Amen

