To spread	light	you c	an be
the candle	e or th	ne mir	ror
that reflec	ts it.

Lord, when I can, I will be the candle... one who brightens someone's day with a smile, a hug or words of kindness and encouragement. And when I can't do that Lord, help me instead to be the reflection of the light that someone shines on me... to accept the smile, the hug, the kindness and encouragement with a grateful spirit and a simple 'thank you'... to store it up and pass it on when I feel able.

Amen
