Be the reason someone smiles today!

Lord, no matter how my day goes, remind me that someone else needs a reason to smile today... and help me to be that reason. Prompt me when that person is near... give me the words to say or show me the thing to do... and give me the courage to follow through. Let someone smile today because they see you through me. Amen

