If God brings you to it,
He will bring you through	it.
Trust in His strength.

Lord, I admit, sometimes I am thrilled with where you take me... other times not so much. Sometimes, I simply don't like it at all. Yet, I trust in your strength to bring me through... to walk with me through the sunshine, the rain and the fire... and to carry me when I can't walk on my own.

Amen
